

BUSINESS IN WARRINGAH

www.warringahchamber.com.au

Are you looking for opportunities to ensure the future success of your business?

The Warringah Chamber of Commerce in partnership with CareerAdvice Australia and NSW Business Chamber invite you to meet the businesses in your region who are wishing to employ young people in their companies.

This is the second part of a program commenced in May in response to business concerns regarding skill shortages in the area.

This part of the program will be held as an evening event on Monday 25th June. Future business viability can be enhanced by employing, training and developing young workers within the local area. At this event parents will have the opportunity to meet with businesses to see what career pathways are open to their children. For more information about this program please contact the President Debbie Fraser.

Member Profile

FACTOR Computer Consulting offers small and medium sized businesses the opportunity to have reliable IT services without the expense of a full-time IT manager. Owner Andrew Marcroft believes that many SMEs can benefit from the methods and tools a larger business's internal IT team use. "We help companies that want to put a reasonable effort into making sure their IT systems are well maintained. "We assess our clients specific needs and develop a structured methodology to help improve IT systems reliability. This can range from implementation and maintenance of computer networks to developing custom databases."

May Breakfast

Kath Rankin, Bronwyn Bishop, Debbie Fraser and Melody Green

Engaging the talent and energy of the X and Y Generations for business

The Chamber May Business Breakfast saw the launch of our skills program. The breakfast was an opportunity for businesses to hear about what motivates the younger generations and how to engage their talent and energy in the workplace. We also learnt about their goals and expectations. Guest speaker was Kathy Rankin from NSW Business Chamber. Kathy is a Senior Policy Advisor and has had experience as an employer and small business owner. Kathy is also a Board Member of Innovation and Business Skills Australia.
