Presidents Comments

Growth happens with strong support. The Chamber is in a growth phase and is supported brilliantly by its members, especially two in particular. Thank you to Ideal Offices and Rent A Space for providing office and storage space. The valuable contribution from members ensures breakfast and after hours meetings are productive and enjoyable. Thank you to the executive committee and all members for excellence in support and assistance.

As society adapts to a new government, chamber members will continue to provide important services to the community in their own unique way. Congratulations small business owners for completing another year of challenges and development.

On behalf of the executive committee, may you and your families have a brilliant Christmas and prosperous 2008.

We look forward to seeing you at the final function for 2007... The Annual Christmas Lights Competition.

Rejuvenating You
