Presidents comments

Moving Forward

A continual growth in membership has elevated us to 119 valuable business owners being part of the Chamber and our role is to support them. Support will be vital when Dee Why is eventually upgraded. Development in Dee Why is inevitable and when an irreversible decision is made a united community will foster a smooth transition and positive growth.

Recently members were treated to an enlightening seminar with representatives from the ATO, Work Cover and Industrial Relations; the end result is better relationships in business and increased confidence dealing with these organisations.

The Chamber is a non profit organisation and now looking for new office space to reside and your help is requested, please contact us if you have space to provide.

Stay focussed on the important things, support each other and contribute where possible.

Member Profile

Founded in 1954 by Royce Gregory, Gregory & Carr has changed the way people thought about a funeral service. At the time, most funerals were conducted in private homes, but Sydney was becoming a city where people required quality service and a funeral services provider with integrity. On that premise, Royce Gregory founded what was then known as a "Funeral Home and Chapel".

Over the years Gregory & Carr have had the privilege of serving many Heads of State, Members of the arts and entertainment world, and families from all walks of life. They cater for all backgrounds, honouring the deceased and comforting their families.

Service styles have varied from the most formal funeral mass to services featuring a lovely musical recital. Each service honours a unique individual who has lived life in his or her own style.

Royce Gregory instilled in his staff an understanding of the value of courteous service and attention to detail, provided to all families. This integrity remains their core principle – when the need arises, call Gregory & Carr funerals on Gordon Funeral Home & Chapel ph (02) 9498 4455 Brookvale ph (02) 9977 8011 Kogarah ph (02) 9553 8560 Mona Vale ph (02) 9999 1522
