

Business in Warringah

www.warringahchamber.com.au

President's comments

Congratulations and good luck Michael Regan and the elected councilors with your new roles; the business community is eager to see what direction you and the council take from here.

As many of the financial giants of the world shake and have to be rescued, Warringah small business will continue to provide stability to the community so we all enjoy the services we are accustomed to.

At the recent Warringah Chamber business breakfast approximately 40 members took away valuable information on communication from the guest speaker and promoted their business to other members.

The Chamber members look forward to seeing you at Lifeline next week.
